Zoology Part XXXIX: Report on the HOLOTHURIOIDEA. Second Part. By Hjalmar Théel. Bound in Volume 14,1886.

TABLE II.—continued.

	Scandinavia, south of the Arctic Circle.	British Islands and France.	Spain, Portugal, Azores Islands.	Mediterranean Sea.	East Coast of North America, from Maine to Florida, including Bermudas.	West Indies, incl. Florida, G. of Mexico, East Coast of Central America and South America, as far as the River Amazon.	West Coast of Africa, including Madeira, Canary Islands, &c.	East Coast of South America.
Holothuria unicolor, Selenka,						×
farcimen, Selenka,			×
captiva, Ludwig,						×
poli, Delle Chiaje,		×		×			×
sanctori, Delle Chiaje,				×
subditiva, Selenka,						× sulcata, Ludwig,						×
occidentalis, Ludwig,						×
helleri, von Marenzeller,				×
tubulosa, Gmelin,		×	×	×			×
stellati, Delle Chiaje,				×
mammata, Grube,				×
rigida, Selenka,						×
princeps, Selenka,						×
impatiens, Forskaal,				×		×
arenicola, Semper,						× cubana, Ludwig,						×
africana, n. sp.,							× s
lactea, n. sp.,					× n
murrayi (var. ?),					× n
inornata, Semper,								×
nigra, Peach, Foot,		×
enalia, Lampert,								×

http://19thcenturyscience.org/HMSC/HMSC-Reports/Zool-39/README.htm