

of a bright orange-scarlet even at Station 64, at a depth of 640 fathoms; and we dredged abundantly S. furcifer, D. and K. (Fig. 14), previously known

FIG. 14. — Solaster urcifer, VON DUBEN and KOREN. Natural size. (No. 55.)

only in the Scandinavian seas. Pedicellaster typicus, SARS, occurred but sparingly, and more frequently the

FIG. 15. — Korethraster hispidus, WYVILLE THOMSON. Dorsal aspect. Twice the natural size. (No. 57.)

pretty biscuit-like Astrogonium granulare, MÜLLER and TROSCHER. A. phrygianum, O. F. MÜLLER, and