

At 2 P.M. we rounded the Cape, and signaled our number to H.M.S. Rattlesnake, just returned from the scene of the Ashantee war; and an hour later we cast anchor in Simon's Bay, and bid farewell for many a long day to the friendly waters of the Atlantic.

Penguins at Home.