

time at our disposal, and partly with the idea of making a series of trawlings like those we had made in the Spanish Bay.

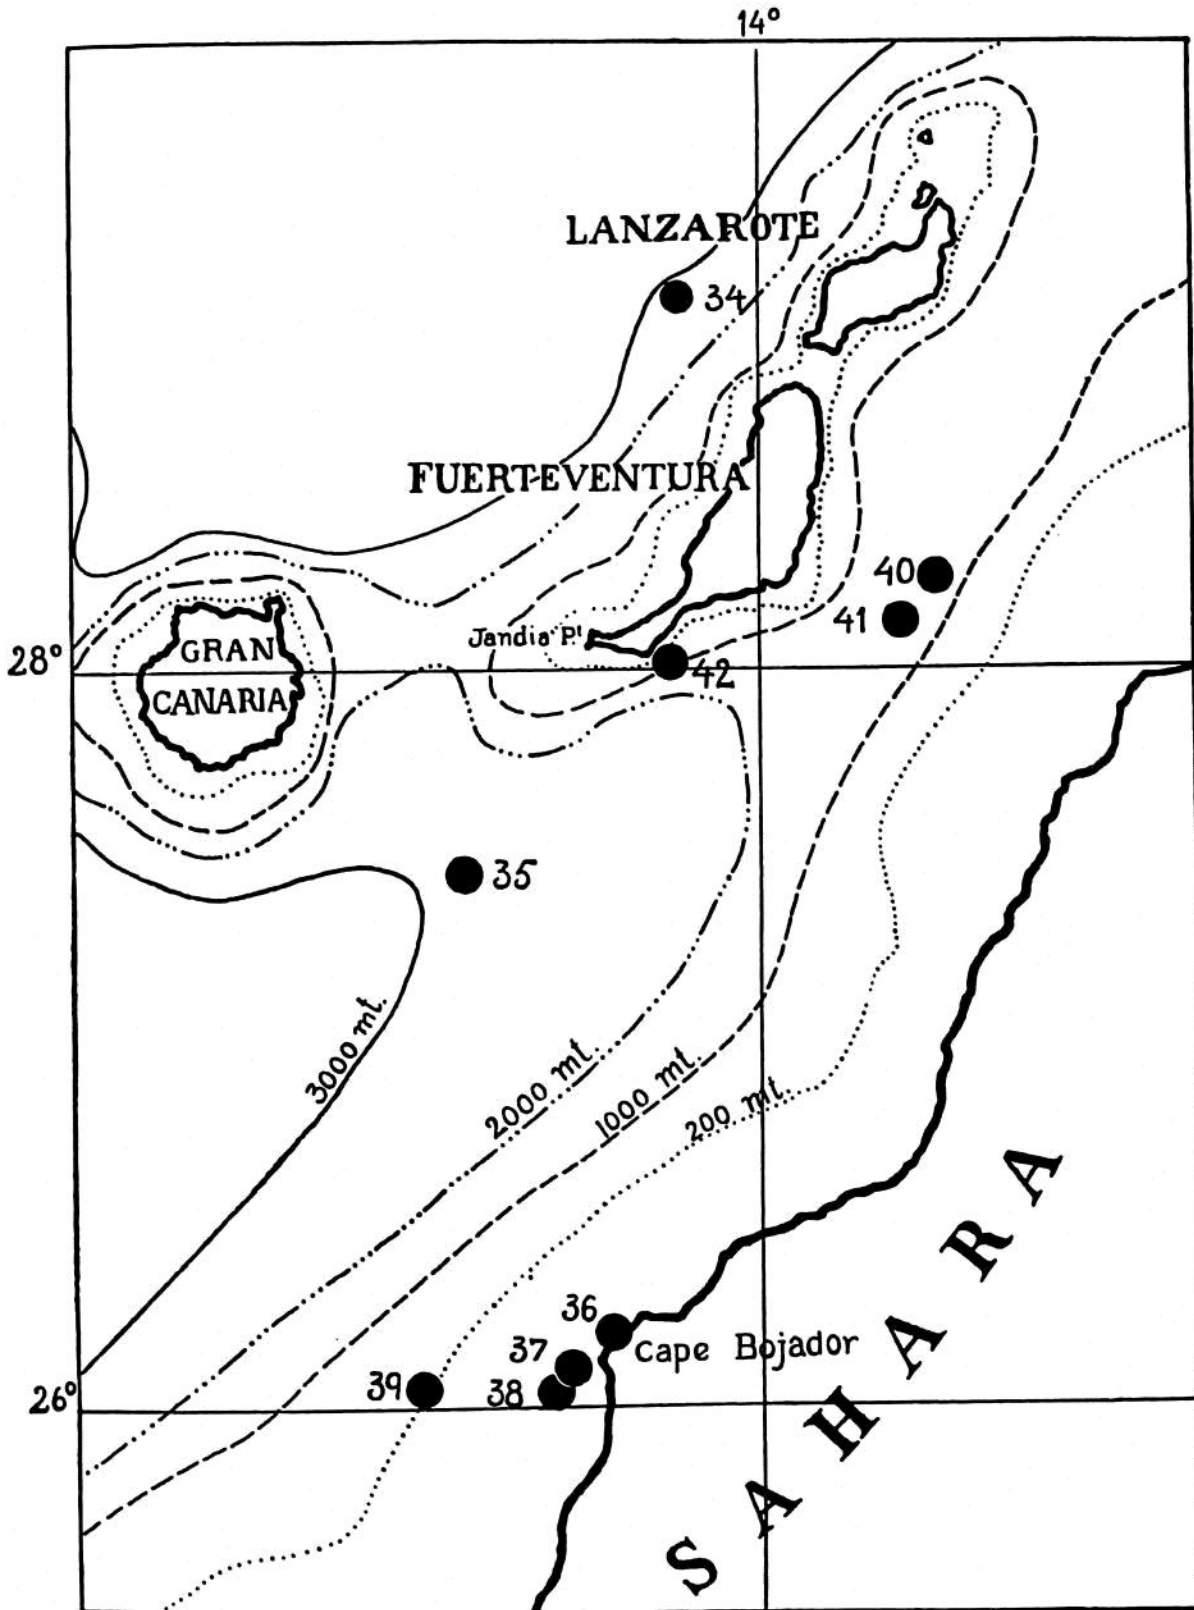

FIG. 53.—"MICHAEL SARS" OBSERVING STATIONS OFF THE CANARY ISLANDS AND COAST OF AFRICA.

Accordingly we left Gran Canaria on 18th May, and steamed for Cape Bojador (see Chart, Fig. 53). On the way we resolved to try our trawl in deep water, as the weather was fine.